

Workshop on Data collection through Citizen Science Agenda

Taranto, Italy – 25th June 2024, 9:00

SESSION 1
09:00 – 09:30 – Participants check-in and registration @ Pier I Molo Sant'Eligio Taranto (JONIAN DOLPHIN CONSERVATION STAFF)
09:30 - 15:00	Data collection through Citizen Science activity Researchers For A Day : citizen science and its importance in cetaceans and marine life conservation (Lia Santacesaria – Alberto Tonoli)
Contents and inputs	Introducing participants to examples, experience and results of Citizen Science good practices
SESSION 2
15:00 – 15:30	Lunch @ Ketos - Taranto Cetaceans Education Centre
15:30 – 16:30	Guided tour of Ketos - Taranto Cetaceans Education Centre (Clemente Nicola – Alberto Tonoli)
16:30 – 17:00	Q&A and participants' discussion
17:00 – 17:30	Conclusions, recommendations and closure of the day
Expected output	Creating a complete, objective overview on how data collected through Citizen Science can benefit the environment and the local communities
17:30 Event closing, Jonian Dolphin Conservation
17:45 End of the workshop	